

Jan 18/09

Vancouver, B.C.

***For Immediate Release***

Just Here for the Beer .Com wants to bring people together this Valentine's Day. Their Beer My Valentine event, held in Granville Island Brewery, combines two Valentine's essentials; beer and chocolate. It is enough to bring everyone together. This February 14th enjoy craft Granville Island beers paired with gourmet Rogers' Chocolates in a setting that is primed for enjoyment.

Colin Jack and Rick Mohabir from Just Here for the Beer .Com have expertly chosen beer and chocolate combinations that are appealing to anyone who likes chocolate or beer or both. "The success of this event lies in the novelty of the pairings and the creative combinations", claims Jack, President of Just Here for the Beer.com. The event is now in its third year having sold out in the previous two years. Jack and Mohabir will lead attendees through the tastes and smells produced by the roasted malts used in the Granville Island beers and how these are accented by the sweet, chocolaty goodness of Rogers' gourmet chocolates and truffles. "We are using two quality products so it's sure to be a tasty experience for Valentine's" states Mohabir, Beer Expert from Just Here for the Beer .Com

This year for Valentine's Day combine the obligatory Valentine's chocolates with beer and celebrate in a unique and interesting way. Whether you're a couple, single or a group of friends, the event is a great way of enjoying Valentine's Day without the cliché.

Tickets are only $35 which includes beer and chocolate samples, live music to dance to, activities that entertain, and door prizes. Tickets are available online at ClubZone or in Granville Island Brewery Retail Store on Granville Island. Event starts at 7pm, pairing starts at 8pm and dancing until midnight.

For more information visit <http://www.justhereforthebeer.com/valentines.htm>

-30-

Contact:
Briana McAteer
Just Here for the Beer.com
Direct: 778-865-1866
briana@justhereforthebeer.com

About Just Here For The Beer

Just Here For The Beer is a Vancouver-based Beer Tasting & Education Company. Offering a wide variety of services, Just Here For The Beer also coordinates 2 festivals in Vancouver (The Canada Cup of Beer, The Wine & Beer Festival) that help consumers expand their tasting experiences. Specializing in beer, Just Here For The Beer also offers staff training and consulting services for restaurants, pubs and liquor stores. Want To Know More About Beer? Think Just Here For The Beer – The Beer Experts!

About Granville Island Brewing

In 1994, Granville Island Brewing, Canada's first microbrewery, opens for business. Our first beer, Island Lager, is brewed in traditional Pilsner style, according to the Bavarian Purity Law of 1516. Granville Island now brews several types of beer all named after locations in and around Vancouver.

About Roger's Chocolates

The first Rogers' Chocolates were made in 1885 by Charles W. (Candy) Rogers in the back of his grocery shop in Victoria. He quickly became a popular man. Rogers' Chocolates is committed to producing and marketing fine products which reflect and maintain our reputation of quality and excellence established for over a century. Roger's Chocolates is perfect for every occasion. With 2 locations in Vancouver, Granville Island & Gastown, Rogers' Chocolate is perfect for any occasion or any excuse.